SCHOOL
RHEIN-MAIN CAMPUS DREIEICH

Individual Support Assistant (m/f)
- Part time (10 hours/week) -

The School

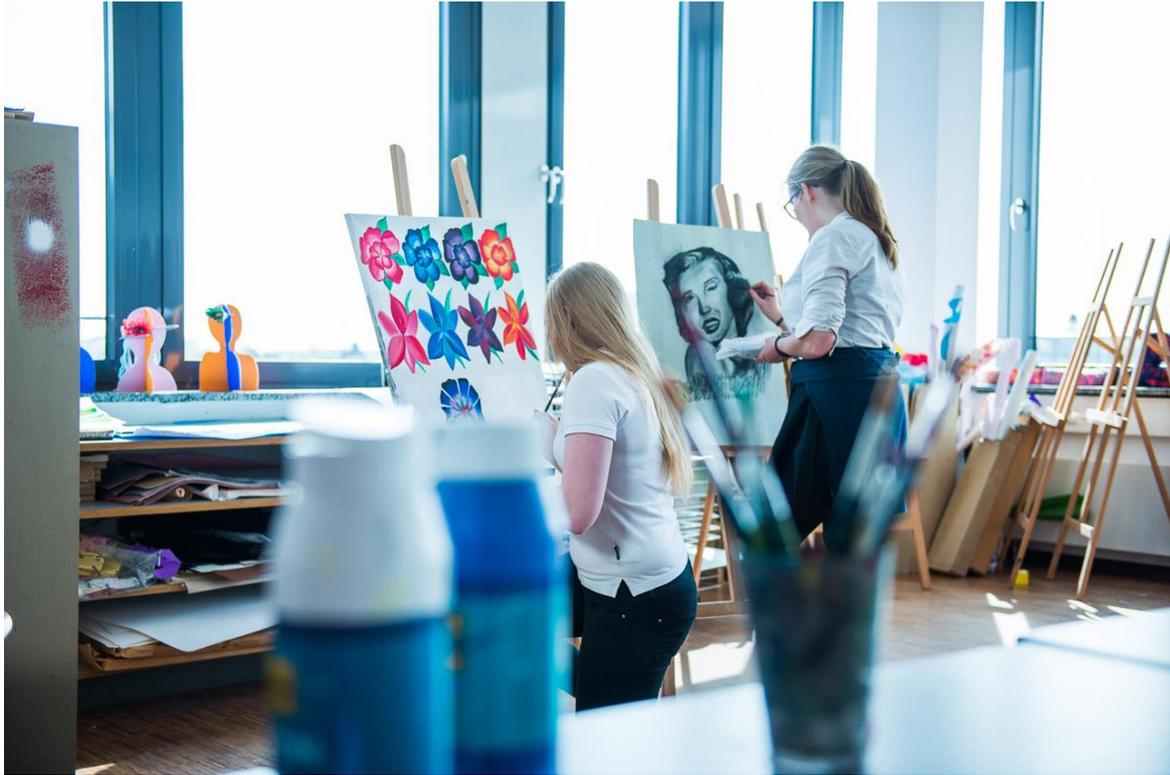

Strothoff International School is different from other international schools in the Frankfurt area. Founded in 2009 by the local entrepreneur Hans Strothoff, our school aims to bring out the best in all its students and to provide them with the social, emotional and academic skills needed to flourish in a rapidly changing world. Only a short distance away from Frankfurt in the north and Darmstadt in the south, the school benefits from a tranquil location and active community. Establishing and maintaining strong, caring, respectful and supportive personal relationships is key to the Strothoff International School ethos. The outstanding teachers at Strothoff International School work closely with parents to focus on the individual. The supportive environment enables students to focus on the challenging task of learning, growing and developing into self-confident young adults.

The school's current enrollment is 365 students from Kindergarten to DP2.

The Position

We are always looking for assistants for 10 hours per week to provide individual in-class support to students with learning needs. The role usually involves working alongside the student and supporting him/her with focus, understanding or completion of classwork, while promoting student independence.
